

Donna Gail Robertson

January 25, 1957 - November 2, 2021

Donna Gail Robertson, age 64, left her earthly body and joined other saints in Heaven on November 2nd, 2021, after a valiant battle with cancer. She is dearly missed by her loved ones, who celebrate the fact she is at peace with her creator.

Donna was born on January 25, 1957 in Bakersfield, California to James and Frances Ramey. She was an elementary school teacher for over 20 years, with many years spent at Golden Oak Elementary School in Visalia, California.

A loving mother, Donna was devoted to her three sons Seth, Trent, and Brett. She often reminisced on the many adventures they went on together: camping at Stony Creek in Sequoia NP, seeing national landmarks across America, and trips abroad. Donna was close with her sons and very proud to see them graduate college, establish careers, and grow the family.

Donna was passionate about living her life to the fullest. Donna married Joe Rex Robertson on March 27th, 2010. They had a happy and loving marriage. As a couple, they explored the world with their many friends, travelling to exotic and fun destinations.

Donna was an active member at Gateway Church in Visalia. Her faith was the foundation of her immense personal strength and resilience.

Donna was blessed with a large and loving family. She is survived by her husband Rex Robertson, her sons Seth, Trent and Brett Conrad, her mother Frances Ramey, her sister Linda Blanton, her brothers Roger and Mark Ramey, stepsons J.R. and Rob Robertson, and 10 beloved grandchildren.
