“ Dorothy was a lovely lady. Always smiling very friendly. A great neighbor. Most of our block of 700 Letts Ave. are gone now but back in the day it was the best place to live in Corcoran. John Cato, Dorothy and Pete Fabrie, Charles Gilkey and Sam and Ann Robertson, from the block, rest in peace. Have a great 4th of July barbecue up there with fire works and lots of laughs.

“ We lived next door to Dorothy. We loved being able to swim in her pool and years later, bringing our own children to visit and enjoy Dorothy's hospitality. We spent many Christmas Eve's with Dorothy as she would attend my mom and dad's annual Christmas Eve gathering. My kids when they were little always called her 'Dorfy' so that's what we starting calling her as well. She will be missed.
