“ Dwight was our loving neighbor and friend. His love and devotion he showed us touched us deeply. We began to see him more as a son than just a neighbor. No matter how he was feeling, he always managed a smile and a hug. His loss has left a huge hole in our lives. Dwight, we look forward to seeing your warm smile and feeling your loving hugs again. We will never forget you.

*All of our love,

“ Dwight was a real character. I miss our phone calls, we had a lot of fun “cracking” each other back and forth. You know, he was born April fools day and I played him good with a fake cake, won’t go in to details. Everyone that knows me knows what I did. He never forgave me for it, and we had fun over the years over that! Anyway, we lost him way too soon, he was a beautiful human being inside & out. He would help anyone with anything if he could. Dwight, I love you brother! I miss you brother! I hope mamma & dad met you on the other side. ❤️

“ I was blessed with my friendship with Dwight years ago. I have never met a more kind and generous person and I never will. He was always ready to help if possible or lend you whatever he had to get a job done.

He cared for everyone in his realm with intense passion.

I will miss him forever and always carry the most fond memories of our time together.

Love you brother!

“ Dwight was a blessing to everyone around him. He had a great sense of humor. Always willing to lend a hand at a moment's notice. A man of many talents. The neighborhood is not the same without him. We miss you 😭.
