

Eddie Leon Silva

November 2, 1988 - January 26, 2021

Eddie Leon Silva was born on November 2, 1988 in Tulare, California and passed away at the age of 32 on January 26, 2021 at his home in Visalia, California. He was born to his mother, Phyllis Marie Peacock Silva and his father, Edwigis Eddie Silva, Jr.

Eddie spent his early years, from birth to thirteen years of age, growing up in Tulare, CA. During this time, Eddie had a love for sports and spent many seasons playing baseball for the Tulare Little League, as well as a few seasons playing basketball for the National Jr. Basketball League.

For the first five years of his life, Eddie was an only child. And then in July of 1993, Eddie became a big brother when his brother, Matthew, was born and Eddie lovingly became known as "BUBS", by his family from then on. Eddie was so proud to be a big brother and even at just five years old, he always was there to assist his mother in making sure his brother was taken care of. He loved his little brother.

From the ages of 5 to 15 years, Eddie spent many summers, visiting his grandparents, Hughie and Iris Peacock, in Georgia and Arizona. Every year, Eddie could not wait to get on an airplane and fly out to see his grandpa Hughie. He enjoyed going to summer camp where he would swim, go fishing, play many sports and all the other fun activities that a child enjoys during camp. It was during this time that a bond was built between him and his grandpa, which Eddie cherished for life.

In 2002, Eddie's mom, Eddie and his brother moved to Visalia, CA. He attended Valley Oak Middle School and Golden West High School. It was during this time that Eddie met his best friend Brandon Garza and the two were inseparable since day one. It was also during this time that Eddie met the love of his life, Adrienne Barrientos. They met on Valentine's Day in 2002 and little did they know that that day of celebrated love would begin a love between the two of them that would continue to this very day.

On November 4, 2010, Eddie's heart became even more filled with love when his son, Aiden Denver was born and he became a proud father. Being blessed by God, by giving Eddie such a sweet, precious boy, who is the very spitting image of his father, gave Eddie a sense of love, pride, purpose and joy that he had never known before. And then again in March of 2018, Eddie opened his heart and his soul and became a father once again to Evan Vincent. A baby that was chosen by God to be fathered by Eddie for the first three years of his life. And Eddie loved him because he knew that Evan was destined to be his son.

Eddie enjoyed spending time with his family and his friends. He was a diehard San Francisco 49er fan and no one could ever change his mind about the Red, White and Gold team that he had loved his whole life. He was always a dedicated team parent and advocate for his son Aiden during each and every one of his athletic games and was often the loudest, cheering his son on from the sidelines. He was a proud father. He loved to party with his friends. He loved to listen to music and he loved trips to the beach. But most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family. His fiancée ♦ Adrienne and his two sons meant the world to him. They were the absolute loves of his life and he would do everything he could in his power to make sure they were taken care of and that they knew he loved them.

Eddie is preceded in death by his grandmother Janice K Burch, grandfather Edwigis Eddie Silva Sr, brother-in-law Jesse Marquez. Eddie is survived by his fiancée ♦ Adrienne Barrientos, his two sons, Aiden Silva and Evan Silva, his mother Phyllis Peacock Silva, father Edwigis Eddie Silva Jr, his brother Matthew Silva, grandfather Hughie Peacock, grandmother Iris Peacock, grandmother Mary Silva, auntie Rosalind Charles, aunt Annette Peacock Recendez, uncle Scott Peacock, aunt Esther Silva, Cousins, David Silva, Tristan Silva, Nichole Potter, Devon Recendez, compa Brandon Garza, mother-in-law Corena Barrientos, father-in-law Mark Barrientos, sister-in-law Alexis Barrientos, brother-in law Arnulfo Garcia, Brother-in-law Ralph Garcia, nieces and nephews, Jacob, Ralph, Arnulfo, Nicholas, Omri, Savannah, mama Sophie, and his toots (Destiny), his Ryder Martin and Godson Anthony Jordan Renteria. "The Breakfast Club", and many other family and friends.

“ Eddie Silva will always be remembered for the love and respect he showed to my husband And I. No matter where we were he would always give hugs to me and shake Jerry's hand. We felt Blessed to have known that part of him.

All he wanted was for his wife and sweetheart Adrienne to have the life she deserved and to be able to raise those two sweet boys. Eddie was unselfish and didn't hesitate to send money when he found out my husband Jerry died in December.

Eddie, Your gentle heart and beautiful smile will never be forgotten. Just as you would have done for others your precious family will never have to be alone. Of course tears will still flow for their honey and daddy but we will be there to help wipe tears away. Until we see you again. Much love and Blessings.. Michele Martin

“ Dear sweet Eddie. Nobody will ever be able to take away that adorable smile you had and that way you treated my husband Jerry Martin Sr and I was like family. You and your wife Blessed us with assistance for Jerry’s funeral. You were one of the most unselfish people I’ve been Blessed to know and I am sorry you left so soon. God Bless you and know that your family will always have our family to walk them through the hard times. Love, Michele Martin
