Eleanor Sing Obituary

On November 19, 2021, Eleanor "Elie" Sing went to heaven to be with the Lord. Elie was born on December 18, 1936 in San Francisco, CA. She was the daughter of Chuck L. and Chau Shee Young, founders of the Visalia Tea Garden restaurant. It was at the restaurant where Elie met her future husband, Johnnie W. Sing, and they were married in 1954. Elie was a hairstylist and worked at JC Penney Styling Salon for over 30 years. She enjoyed reading, sewing, arts and crafts especially painting, spending time with family and playing the slot machines. Mom was very creative, especially when it came to home decor, and she had an eye for design and fashion. She could make everything look good. Elie loved the Lord. She was a long-time member of Visalia First, and her faith was evident throughout her life. She was always someone you could turn to in times of need and prayer. Eleanor is survived by her children, Debbie Newlin (Erik), Donnie Sing (Pam), Richie Sing (Kathy) all of Visalia, and Michael Sing from New Jersey. She has five grandchildren (Jordan Newlin, Ameer Swearingen (Ryan), Kenny Sing, Kevin Sing and Aaron Sing, and four great-grand children (Martine Newlin; and Hudson, Harper and Hadley Swearingen). She is predeceased by her parents, her husband, Johnnie, and son, Kim Charles. The family would like to thank the doctors and nurses at Kaweah Health for their care of Mom during her brief illness. Memorial services will be held at Visalia First Assembly of God on Monday, November 29 at 10am.

Services have been entrusted to Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel. Memorial Tributes and condolences may be offered by logging onto www.salseranddillard.com.
