

Elizabeth Jennie Louise Carranza

December 15, 1956 - February 24, 2023

Elizabeth Jennie Louise Carranza, 66, of Dinuba, California, passed away February 24, 2023, with her eldest son by her side at Kaweah Delta Medical Center.

She was born to the late Ruth and Warren Cornog, December 15, 1956, in San Jose, California. Jennie graduated from Exeter High School in 1975 and received an AA degree from College of the Sequoias.

Jennie is survived by her four children: Shannon Aguirre, of Los Angeles; Shauna Castillo, of Dinuba; Dana Aguirre, of Visalia; Joshua Aguirre, of Dinuba; and brother: David Edwards, of Tacoma. She is also survived by eight grandchildren.

Jennie might have thought that her biggest accomplishment(s) in life were her children. Although she was a smart woman and loved school, she loved her children very much. Jennie worked very hard in her young adult life to support and care for her kids. We might not have had much growing up, but we didn't know it. She tried her best to give us what we needed and wanted. She would always make sure we ate first. If she was tired, she didn't show it. One thing that Jennie loved doing, was to go out dancing. Even when she was pregnant. Her friends used to tell her that your baby is going to come out dancing. It never happened, but it's a nice thought. Jennie didn't have the life that she deserved and/or dreamed of, but she was loved. We didn't get to show or tell her how much we appreciated everything she's done for us kids, but hopefully she knows that now. She will live on through us and our adventures. We'll forever love you, Mom.
