“ My dearest Eloise.. You were always doing something. I am very glad we became great friends in 1999. When I moved in. You always had that peaceful look about you all the time. And wonderful times together passing in the hallways, and great time of talking and laughing. And the pot lucks everyone had with you. I know you are now in peace, happy to be with Rufus. Will my friend Eloise who is in the Lords hands. One day we will meet in the halls, and paths again. Who will be miss here at Valencia House, I will see you one day when times comes. Love, peace to you my friend.
