“ Tina was my friend. Tina introduced herself to me 14 years ago in a religion class we both were thrilled to be taking. Such a sweet, friendly lady, I thought. And we became the "bestest" of friends. My friend was so talented in so many fields - professionally and what a crafty woman. When I went to her house she was always working on an order for her hand-made decorations for big events happening around the county. Professionally she could do it all. She was an ESL teacher for adults. She did medical assistant translations. She was a licensed court translator. She did tax preparations for those who could not afford to pay to have it done. And many other talents in other fields. Tina was such a dedicated, hard worker. Any job she took on was done quickly, efficiently and beyond expectation. Generous - she was generous to a fault...meaning she would literally give anyone the shirt off her back. Saw her do it. I feel my life has been blessed from having known Tina these past years. And hope her's was made even a little bit happy with the friendship we shared. I love you Tina. Love and prayers to your family. We remember, Families are forever and can we together again.
