“ Dear Maria and families, I extend my deepest sympathy on the passing of Evert and will miss our frequent conversations. His love of life and closeness of family was easily seen by all who knew him. May you be comforted by our Lord as you continue your journey without your loved one.

Evert was a dear friend and co worker. It was always a blessing to work with him, we shared many wonderful conversations. He loved singing and he always spoke lovingly of his wife and family.
