

Dr. Felix Meyer Trapse, Jr.

April 24, 1960 - April 30, 2025

On Wednesday, April 30, 2025, Dr. Felix Meyer Trapse Jr., loving father, steadfast husband, caring brother and healer of many, entered the Kingdom of God at age 65.

Dr. Trapse was born on April 24, 1960, in Zambales, Philippines to Julia Meyer Trapse and Felix Trapse Sr.. He served his community as a primary care physician for over 40 years, both in the Philippines and in America. On December 16, 1995, he married Bonibel Artajos Trapse and they lived a blessed, loving and joyful life together for 29 years. Those years were filled with his lovely wife's good food, boisterous laughter, and many inside jokes.

Dr. Trapse had a passion for movies, music and learning as well as a penchant for fashion. He was a quiet, but deeply feeling man that loved others with a tender heart. Equipped with a charming sense of humor and an extraordinary case of illegible doctor handwriting, that only his wife could read, Dr. Trapse won the trust and admiration of many of his patients. However, he was not only a healthcare provider, he was a provider for his family as well. His wisdom and the valuable life lessons taught continue to reverberate in the family who survive him.

Dr. Trapse was preceded in death by his father, Felix Sr. and his mother, Julia. He is survived by his wife Bonibel, his daughters Juliane and Gabrielle, his sisters Teresita, Maribeth, Marline and Lillian and several cousins, nieces and nephews.
