She was preceded in death by her Father and Mother, Emilio and Socorro Cervantes; brother, Jose Pepe Ramirez and nephew, Anthony Lincoln.

For all that knew Frances she was an incredible loving person who always put everyone else first. She was strong and lived everyday to the fullest. No words can describe the impact of the love and strength she shared with so many. She fought many years with CREST Syndrome but she did not let it define her. She didn't give up because of the love that she had for all her family. She loved everyone to the end but God knew it was time to take her home and she isn't suffering anymore.
