“ My son Howard Wilson shared the loss of his friend Frank. I never met him but Howard spoke praises of his life and how Mr. Bettencourt showed KINDNESS and WISDOM towards him as a young man. Thank you for inspiring my son in becoming the man he is today without prejudice or judgement. We are so very sorry for your loss...God Bless

“ *My cousin Frank was one the hardest working guys I've ever known. Quick with a friendly smile and a big hug, you always knew you were really lucky to know Frank. We rejoice in the life Frank had with Sharon and their loving family. We will be together again some day and enjoy each other once again! RIP Frank Bettencourt. Life well lived and job well done.
