Frank V. Borba, passed away surrounded by his family and went to meet his heavenly father on September 12, 2015 after fighting a battle with leukemia. Frank was born on April 11, 1927 in Goshen Calif., to Frank and Emilia Borba. At the age of 2 years old, his parents moved back to the Island of Terceira, Azores, and he lived there until he was 19 years old. Frank moved back to America with a dream of starting a family and owning his own dairy. With hard work and determination he had his first dairy in Winton, CA. Frank later moved to Southern California to work and start a dairy, and in 1953 he married Mercedes Aguiar. Frank and Mercedes moved their family and the family dairy from Chino, CA, to Visalia in 1971. Frank was in the dairy business for over 40 years, and would continue to work with cattle well into his retirement years. Frank's stories of his youth, his sense of humor and conversations will be forever cherished by his family and friends. We loved him for his passion for life and his love for all, including his four-legged companions. At the age of 88 years old, he never wanted to give up. His quiet strength and toughness throughout his illness will always be an inspiration to his family.
