Start story here

After 90 incredible years of life and happiness, Fred Slover passed away peacefully on Tuesday, November 24, 2015.

Born in Oklahoma on December 25, 1924, he moved to California with his family as a young boy, graduated from Exeter High School, then started a trucking business with his brothers in Visalia. Always a hard worker, lover of the mountains and outdoors, one would rarely catch him indoors — unless he was tearing up the dance floor.

Fred will be lovingly remembered by his daughter, Carylon Castro, son-in-law, Gary Castro, 3 grandchildren, Casey Castro Moran, Lendi Slover, Sammi Slover, and 3 great grandchildren. Those that passed before him include his wife of over 50 years, Bonnie Slover, siblings, Raymond Slover, Gladys Searcy, Ray Slover, Lewis Slover, sons, Gilbert Slover and Gary Slover, and parents, Barbara and Sam Slover.

A celebration of Fred's life will be held on Thursday, December 3, at 10:30 A.M. at the Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel in Visalia.

The family would like to thank Fred's doctor, Dr. De La Cerna, for all the loving care he provided for many years, as well as the kind staff at Optimal Hospice and TLC for their excellent care and compassion.

In lieu of flowers, a donation can be made to the Optimal Hospice Foundation or an organization of your choice.

“ Fred and my Dad Tom Northcutt were team roping partners in the 1950's and 1960. They won many ropings. One being in Coarsegold in 1964.

“ Carolyn and Family,

*My parents, Charlotte and Elvis Corley had known your parents for many years and had always told me what nice people they were. Several years ago, I met your Dad at the Visalia Senior Center, where I ran a dance, and found out what a nice and humorous person he was. He was also a great dancer! Even though he was more than twenty years older than me, when I would dance with him, I thought someone would need to call the paramedics for ME! Harold and I will really miss your Dad and we send our thoughts and prayers to you and your family.

“ Carolyn and family, I just want to express my sincere condolences re: Freds' passing. He was a good, good, man whom I was proud to call my friend. He made a positive difference in the lives of many. I loved his great sense of humor and quick wit observed on many of our horseback packing adventures. If laughter is good for the soul, then our souls overflowed with goodness from deep belly laughs. Your dad loved his family so much and spoke lovingly of all of you on many occasions when we lapsed into our "deep" talk. I know that you will find solace knowing this about him. In the future, when I gaze at the twinkling stars of night, I hope to think of Fred and the many good times we shared. His memory will not tarnish in my lifetime. Bless you and your family in these difficult days. Bill Adams
