

Garrett Roland Saenz

September 27, 2007 - November 27, 2013

Garrett Roland Saenz "G man," graced us with his contagious smile and touched countless lives with his heart of gold. Garrett loved superheroes, always running around with a cape. He often referred to himself as Batman. He spent his days protecting his little sister, always being the perfect big brother. Garrett loved baseball and was a huge San Francisco Giants fan. He even named his puppy Buster, after Buster Posey. Garrett entered this life on September 27, 2007, and after a 15month battle with leukemia, earned his wings on November 27, 2013. He is survived by his parents Juan and Pattie Saenz, and his little sister Ella Grace. The viewing will be held on Thursday, December 5 at Salser and Dillard Funeral Chapel from 4-7p.m. The funeral service will be at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, December 6 at Neighborhood Church in Visalia. Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy- Author unknown
