“ Sorry to hear of Chief Brown's passing. He was a valued member of the Ashland Police Dept. in the early 90's. I last saw him at Retired Ashland Police Sgt. Craig Hooper's memorial service at the V.A. Cemetery in Eagle Point. We shared a few memories and had some laughs. I will always remember his easy going spirit and constant smile. I still have a number of police department "trading cards" showing Gary wearing his 10 gallon hat standing next to his horse, his real "Cowboy Jack" persona. Your legacy lives on through all of us whose lives you touched. Rest in Peace Chief.

“ It was an honor to serve under Chief Brown at Monterey Police Department. A very talented man, kind, tolerant, soft spoken, understanding and humorous. He never changed the stars from their appointed courses, but he served good men, and he rode good horses. Rest in Peace Gary, you are with your creator now.
