

George Allen Mason

December 16, 1932 - February 29, 2024

George Allen Mason of Visalia, CA died on Thursday, February 29, 2024. He was born on December 16, 1932 in Philo, Ohio, to Leroy Earl and Helen Margaret Mason.

While at Philo High School, George received letters in football, baseball, basketball and track. While George was working at Essex Wire, he met the eternal love of his life Ada Mae Himmelspach. They wed on February 7, 1952 in Zanesville, Ohio. They were married for 70 years until Ada's death in 2022. They moved to Visalia, CA in 1958 where they purchased the family home, and lived the rest of their lives. George started working at McGraw Edison in 1960 and retired in 1986.

George loved all sports and was very competitive, especially with his son and grandsons. He coached many baseball teams in the 60's and 70's. He loved playing golf with his friends, and mostly with Ada.

George is preceded in death by his wife, Ada Mae Mason, his parents Leroy Earl and Helen Margaret Mason, brothers William Mason and Gordy Mason. He is survived by his 3 children; William Mason (Karen), Rebecca Sue White (Mike) and Patricia Ann Mason, 4 grandchildren; Lorena Fagundes, Trampus Fagundes, Andrew Mason and George Mason, 4 great-grandchildren; Desia Hinojosa, Amelia Mason, Dominique Mason and Eriana Mason, 1 great great-grandson, Michael Torres, his brother David Mason and numerous nieces and nephews.
