“ I have fond memories of my Uncle George. When I was in grade school he'd play Barbies with me. He always had great ideas to dye their hair with Kool-Aide or gather boxes to create a mansion. He helped me build my very own unique Barbie Dream House. I have a clear memory of him in a bright purple shirt at Great America on the Edge. I remember jumping for joy every time I spotted that purple shirt and the cage dropped over the Edge with my Uncle George and Brother Tommy. I was too scared to go, but I just loved watching them over and over. When I was 13 he surprised us at Disneyland with Papa for Thanksgiving. These memories and many more are why I'll fondly think of my Uncle George as the fun Uncle!
