

Georgia Sue Mallory

September 22, 1947 - December 5, 2024

Georgia passed away at home on December 5 with Chris, Lindsey, and Jordan at her side after a long battle with Dementia.

Georgia was born in Plymouth Indiana September 22 1947 to George and Beverly. Her father was a milk man and used to let Georgia ride with him on deliveries when she was very young.

George and Beverly decided to pull up stakes and move to California when Georgia was about 5. At that time she had her younger brother J Breck. Once in California her second brother Geoff was born. George found work in the hardware business and they bought a house in Whittier, CA. Georgia went the public school system and graduated from Cal High. She decided to work as a dental assistant and went to school and worked in the field for about 10 years.

She met Chris in 1965, fell in love and got married in July of 1966. Later that year Chris was drafted in the Army. After basic they lived in El Paso, Texas then Germany where they traveled and saw a lot of Europe.

After Chris's discharge and a couple of moves they ended up in Anaheim Hills. They were eager to have a family and ended up adopting Lindsey in 1982 and Jordan in 1987. Georgia loved being a mother and was very active volunteering at the kids Christian School.

Her passion was collecting vintage table cloths from the 50's. She had hundreds and sold some online. Her other passion was volunteering for 20 years as a Docent at the Nixon Library. She loved working there and made many friends. She organized many celebrity book signings. She worked the at the Nixon and Bob Hope funerals. She loved Tom Selleck the actor and got to rub against his coat at the Bob Hope Funeral.

Georgia was loved by many and loved many. She will be missed but we know she is with the Lord, her brother Geoff and her parents.
