“ Mommy, I love and miss you more than anything in this whole world. You were my best friend and the one person I could trust 100%. Everyone who knew you knew that. My mother had so many sons & daughters who loved and adored her, called her Mom and respected her. This has affected so many but we are comforted in knowing you are in heaven. The girls miss you, things are not the same without you here. Please watch over your pride n joy Cami Grace & baby Scarlett Reign <3 they were your world & will never forget you. David will take care of us, you know that... I'm glad he could be the son you deserved & hold your hand till your last breath. We will see you again xoxo
