

Glen Alan Bower

November 20, 1963 - July 4, 2025

Glen Alan Bower, 61, passed away on July 4, 2025, in Clovis, California. Born on November 20, 1963, in Tulare, California, Glen lived a life marked by humility, humor, and a deep appreciation for the world around him.

A high school graduate, Glen was known for his caring nature and quick wit. His sarcasm and love of joking around brought laughter to those fortunate enough to know him. He had a unique way of connecting with people-his presence was comforting and his spirit uplifting.

Glen found joy in the simple yet awe-inspiring aspects of life. He loved watching trains rumble down the tracks and was fascinated by planes soaring through the sky-especially those involved in firefighting efforts. He also enjoyed observing truckers as they journeyed across the United States, admiring their dedication and the vastness of the open road. These interests reflected his appreciation for movement, purpose, and the quiet strength found in everyday heroes.

Glen's life was deeply shaped by his relationships. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife Tracy; his brother Steven; his mother Phyllis; and his father Bobby. Their memories remained close to his heart throughout his life.

He is survived by his son Joshua; cousin David; brothers-in-law Ryan and Troy; and sister-in-law Eloise. Each held a special place in Glen's life and shared in the warmth of his generous spirit.

Glen will truly be missed by his friends and family. He impacted many lives in a positive way, leaving behind a legacy of kindness and laughter that will continue to resonate through those who knew and loved him.

May Glen's memory bring comfort to all who mourn his passing and inspiration to those who carry forward the light he shared so freely. A Memorial Gathering will be held on July 24, 2025, from 11:00 AM to 12:30 PM at Visalia Methodist Church 5200 W Caldwell Ave.
