“ Gloria was a faithful attendee in the Sunday School class at Dinuba Mennonite Brethern Church, ready to share what the Lord was doing in her life. She also wrote beautiful poetry and I still have the copy she shared entitled "Whose Am I". I would be happy to mail you a copy by giving me your mailing address. Send your e-mail to j ohnregier1362@comcast.net Her quick smile was always an encouragement.

Thank you, John, for sharing your fond memories of my mother. Her church family was near and dear to her heart. Her poems are treasured as they are snapshots of her heart, innermost dreams, and the deep love she had of her family, friends, and her Lord. Thank you for offering a copy of the poem she shared with you. I have emailed my address to you. Thanks again.

“ Gloria was a member of our Voyagers Sunday School Class at DMBC Church in Dinuba CA. She was a special babysitter for many children at the church during her years with us. We have missed her!

Thank you for sharing! My mom loved her church family, her fellow Sunday School Class members, and all the children she watched, taught, and loved over the years. Your friendship was dear to her. Thank you again,
