She emigrated to Visalia, California in the early 1970s and, shortly after, married Jose Ruiz-Manzano. They were married for 40 years.

They traveled throughout the West Coast working and living, until they settled in Visalia in the 1980s to start a family, where they had three sons: Rosendo, Orlando, and Jaime Ruiz.

She was preceded in death by her husband and her parents.

She is survived by her sons, Rosendo (Gladys) Ruiz, Orlando Ruiz, and Jaime Ruiz-Lobato; her grandchildren, Kaden Seelapasay, Ariana Ruiz, and Sienna Ruiz; her siblings, Rafaela Lobato, Isaias Lobato, Alfredo Lobato, and Hector Lobato, as well as numerous family members and loved ones.

She was a bright light in our lives, and family meant everything to her. There are no words to describe what she meant to us, how much we loved her, and how deeply we will miss her.
