To my childhood friend, Greg. I can name a thousand and one memory of you. My favorite one was when Dina cut her foot with the edge blade at church and you came in the house to cheer her up. You had us laughing non stop. You're cheerfulness and laughter is what I remember the most. I'm so sorry you were so sick and I wasn't around to help you. A year later, I find your service with your loving family. What ever the sickness that had stricken you, you are in peace with our Lord.

Love ya...

Delia~
