

Harmony London Franklin

July 12, 2021 - November 12, 2022

We are disheartened by the loss of our beautiful baby girl Harmony London Franklin, due to a tragic accident in Tulare California on November 12, 2022 at the age of 1. Harmony was a loving and kind daughter, sister, cousin, (great) granddaughter, niece and best friend. Harmony always had a beautiful smile that she carried around with everything that she did and this little mischievous grin that could win the hearts of everyone. Harmony always had some kind of positive energy around that could make a dark room bright. Harmony had the biggest heart that we all will miss. Harmony left a huge imprint on the lives that were blessed to meet such a beautiful soul. She will forever be missed and will always be in our hearts and minds.

She is survived by her father Erick Franklin and mother Catrina Chavez. Also her siblings, sister Bella and Jordan and brother Kendrick. She is survived by grandmother Rachel Knight, Maria Silva and grandfather Michael Martinez. Great grandmother Frankie Knight and Jose Silva, cousins, aunts and uncles.

“ Harmony, in your short time on earth you brought so much love and happiness to those around you. You will be missed dearly by your mom, dad, sisters, brother and family. Watch over them, and continue to show them signs that you are still here in spirit. Fly with the angels, sweet baby girl.
