

Hayden Kurray Vargas

September 16, 1994 - February 25, 2017

Hayden Kurray Vargas: The man with the contagious smile. Hayden Vargas forever altered the dynamics of this world from the day he entered it, Friday, September 16, 1994, to the day he passed beyond it, Saturday, February 25, 2017. In those twenty-two years, Hayden bridged a network of multifaceted communities—with his passion to succeed physically at CrossFit, his hard work ethic at the various places of his employment, and, especially, his closest friendships, established during (and after) his time at Redwood High School. And yet, this brief survey of twenty-two years is false in its brevity: although Hayden’s influence may no longer be physical, its lasting impact cannot be measured or contained within any given increment of time. He will perpetually remain here, with us all, in the hearts of those he blessed with that pearly white smile. Hayden Vargas was a beacon that illuminated this world with the greatest contribution any person could offer: the friendship of a gentle heart. Hayden is survived by his mother and father, Robert Vargas, Christine Serna and Darron Serna; his siblings, Nicole Luna, Raquel Vargas and Nathan Vargas; his niece, Brooke Morales; his paternal grandparents Ralph Vargas Sr., Anna Vargas, Flora Poncey and Anthony Poncey Sr.; as well as his maternal grandparents, Louie and Virginia Luna.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Vargas family myself and my family remember Hayden during my son Brandon and Hayden playing baseball together we will, always remember him in May ways God bless his family
And friends we will miss Hayden
But we carry him in our hearts
And our memories
