“ With LOVE for my Sister:

*Poem of Life
By an Unknown Author*

*Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*

*"Always in my Heart"
All my Love, Joyce.*

“ I enjoyed Helen's friendship so much over the years. I loved to hear her Canadian accent come through every once in awhile. She was always so positive even when things weren't always going her way. I admired her so much when she was going through the first round of chemotherapy and she was loosing all of her beautiful long hair. Patiently she waited for it to grow back. We enjoyed many church activities and visits together. The photo of Helen truly represents her personality, her love for the Lord and life. I will miss her and look forward to the day when we will meet again.
Our love and deepest sympathy to her family.
