

Hilario Osiel Olague, Jr.

June 6, 1951 - August 1, 2024

Hilario Olague "Jr" as he was known to his family and friends passed away August 1st, 2024, at the age of 73. Jr was born on June 6, 1951, in Canutillo Texas to Hilario and Carmen Olague. Jr grew up in Woodlake with his brother Raul. Jr met the love of his life Eva Gonzalez when he was in the 6th grade and she was in 7th grade, in 1965. They continued on to be high school sweethearts and got married in 1971.

Jr started working at Norwalk Valley Vault after graduating. He started as a cement worker and retired as a plant supervisor after 43 years in June of 2014. Jr also started working at the Woodlake Memorial, in 1985. What started out as a favor to help a friend turned into 39yrs of "El senior del Salon." Jr & Eva loved to go dancing to travel to Texas, Las Vegas and those occasional RAIDER games. Jr was especially happy surrounded by his family and friends enjoying a good BBQ and an ice chest full of Bud light. Jr & Eva shared a beautiful marriage for 53yrs.

Jr will be deeply missed by his wife Eva, his 2 kids Irene (Jose), Ruben (Mary), his 3 grandsons David, RJ, Jayden, his great grandkids, Landon, Paizlee and Lincoln. Jr is predeceased by his parents Hilario and Carmen Olague, sister Delia Olague and great grandson Liam Ramirez. Jr has left behind a legacy of love, good memories and kind gestures. Thank you to all that have shared their memories and condolences to the family, they are comforting in this time of loss of a Husband, Dad, Grandpa, Papa Juju, and Brother.

“ My deepest and most sincere condolences to his family. My heart breaks for all of you. It never failed, every time we seen each other in town he would always say hello and ask how I was. Very sweet man. May he rest by the side of our Lord forever. God wrap your hands around his family now, and may they find peace and comfort knowing he is with you in paradise.
Amen

My family were neighbors for a long time. We would go dancing together with the Compadres Jr and Eva and the Compadres Raul and Clara. I will always cherish this memories. Such wonderful people. Our son's were good friends with Ruben and Irene. May he rest on peace. Our prayers for all the game.
