

Hoa Van Truong

September 13, 1949 - July 16, 2014

The family of Hoa Van Truong is grieving the sudden passing of our husband, father, uncle and brother on July 17. Hoa was born in Cambodia on September 13, 1949. He married the love of his life, Anh, in 1973. Together they courageously fled the terrors of a war torn country to come to America in a small boat. He and Anh made their home in Visalia where he learned the language, earned his citizenship and worked for Visalia Veteran's Memorial Building for 30 years. His life was dedicated to his family for whom there was never any task too difficult to undertake.

He was survived by his wife, Anh of 41 years and his daughter Andrea. He is also survived by his brother, Tong Ky Truong, his brother-in-law Dat Wong and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister and brother.

Hoa will be remembered for his quiet dignity, courage, love of family and country and his never failing work ethic.

A viewing will be held at Salser and Dillard Funeral Home on, 2014 from 5pm to Thursday, July 24 from 5 to 7pm. Funeral services will be held at Gateway Church on the corner of Sowell and Tulare St. on July 25th at 11:00am.

Anh and Andrea request that in lieu of flowers, contributions in Hoa's name be made to Gateway Church's Youth Ministries.
