

Jacinda Eve Avina

November 22, 1998 - January 17, 2017

Jacinda Eve Avina, age 18, passed away to be home in the loving arms of the Lord on January 17, 2017. Jacinda was born in Visalia, CA on November 22, 1998. She was a resident of Visalia. As a little girl, Jacinda became a girl scout to better serve her community. She was loving, kind, and compassionate to those who were in need.

As Jacinda grew older, her ability to listen and empathize with others helped her form many close bonds with friends and family. She lived in Laguna Niguel, CA for 5 years and enjoyed hanging out with friends at the beach while attending Dana Hills H.S. Upon moving back to Visalia, she attended El Diamante H.S. and Crescent Valley Charter School with plans of attending COS in the fall. She had dreams of becoming a dental hygienist vs. counselor. Jacinda spent a short time working with children at Imagine U Interactive Children's Museum to assist with services. Jacinda had many talents including drawing, writing, singing, and dancing. She loved the outdoors, swimming in the ocean, and doting on her two dogs Rocky and Ginger with lots of love and affection. Her lively, funny, and vibrant spirit will live in our hearts forever and she will be sadly missed by those who knew her.
