“ On more than one occasion, while the girls were growing up, I would see the Gonzales family’s SUV parked in front of a beauty salon on Mooney Boulevard. As I’m driving by, I would notice Jim’s feet hanging out the drivers side window. It would make me smile and think “what a good man he is, patiently waiting on his girls”. This represents the memories I have of Jim, those small, quiet ones that show the love and support he had for his family. Oh and how they loved him in return! Jim will be greatly missed and always admired.
