“ Jim are hearts will forever be broken. You weren't just a casual acquaintance. For almost 6 years you and Laurie have been a constant part of our lives. We are so sorry we didn't know how heavy the burdens you were carrying. We would have helped you to carry them. I don't think a day will go by with not thinking of you and missing you. We love you and we will always feel a hole in our hearts. For goodness sakes who am I gonna get in trouble with haha.... Miss you horribly our friend!!!! We will watch over Laurie.- we promise..... And we will check on Dad, Mom, Mark and the girls too.. You have an AMAZING family... We hurt for then all..... my heart will always wonder what if..... so many thoughts..... And btw our 69 group was supposed celebrate our 50th together. After all those party talks a life size pix of you will be there. Xoxo Forever in our hearts 🥰

“ Jim as we knew him in the riding community. I am at a loss for words. You were like my big brother, always joking and with such a great spirit. You always had such a great personality and a love for life and your smile just made me happy. My brothers were never there for me and I felt like you were just an all around great guy. We enjoyed riding with you and Laurie. Paul and I will miss you and we will never forget you. My condolences to Laurie and your family. I know your spirit will live on in all of us and I know you are watching over all your loved ones. May you live on in Paradise my dear friend.

“ Remembering you will always make me smile. Although my heart is so sad and I'm even angry with you Jimbo... I will forgive you and find comfort knowing that you are now resting in peace. I never thought that meeting you 30 years ago at McDonald's, and then your entire family would turn into such a long friendship. Thank you for being a part of some wild and crazy memories back in the 80s and for giving me the pleasure of seeing you become a father to two beautiful young ladies who I know were so proud of. Love you my friend. ❤️❤️ Cathy Martinez

“ My first born has left his earthly body to fly with the angels. He will forever be watching over his loved ones here on earth and cradling them in his arm during times of need. He left us so suddenly. As time heals my wounds I will once again smile from the many happy memories he brought to me as a loving and wonderful child and man. He was always there for me during hard times in my life and I always tried to be there for him. I believe I was and he knows that. Now we must all grieve and then move on as life is so full of challenges and hurdles we must leap. Love to all for your support and the love you gave jimmy during his time on earth.

“ This is so tragic, was just introduced to Jim recently. We had breakfast and went on a ride through the foot hills. I would post on social media and he would respond often. I would be getting up to go to work when he was getting off. My heart is saddened knowing we won't be able to share the same wind in this life again. I hope he finds peace in the next life and my thoughts and prayers go out to the ones that were closest.
