

James P. Taylor

August 30, 1965 - December 26, 2017

James (Jim) P. Taylor passed away unexpectedly in Clovis CA on December 26, 2017, at the age of 52 with his beloved wife of 25 years by his side.

Jim is survived by his grandmother, Katy Taylor; parents, Paul and Barbara Taylor; wife, Mary; children; Julie (Jerry) Volkmar, and Sarah (Troy) Myers; grandchildren; Kelsey, Hailey and Kaitlin; siblings; Karen (Orlando) Marques and Jayne Reyes; and numerous nephews and nieces.

Jim was born August 30, 1965, in Merced CA. From the time he was very young, Jim enjoyed taking things apart and putting them back together. Jim loved the dairy life and became a Dairyman at the age of 14. From that point on, he knew he wanted to continue with the dairy industry and was the owner/operator of CT & T Enterprises {dairy feed covering}.

In Jim's spare time, which was very limited depending on "covering season", he loved flying his drones, driving off-road vehicles, playing golf, and camping in Pismo; until he found his love again for Shaver Lake. That is where he and his wife would escape to as often as they could. The trees were very symbolic to him and his family.

Jim enjoyed collecting John Wayne memorabilia and antique farm equipment. He loved working with wood, making people laugh, and playing tricks on people.

He enjoyed watching the history channel and any "improvement" show.

Jim lived by the words "go big or go home". He believed in "a handshake means more than pen and paper" and "find your purpose in life and do it".

Jim was loved by many and was very loyal to everyone that knew him. He will be dearly missed and will never leave our hearts.

Visitation will be Jan. 3, 2018, from 4-7pm, at Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel. Services will be Jan. 4, 2018, at 10am at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Visalia with burial at Visalia District Cemetery.
