“ Jamie had a heart of gold, so full of life, endless smile. He lived a difficult life, but now he is at peace. He used to send us letters filled with his love of our Heavenly Father and Bible verses. One day we will see him again. Our love, hugs and prayers go to Beverly and the family. There are no words to fill the loss and pain you are feeling. Just know that we are a phone call away and will will always be here for you.

*Thanks Marilyn
Jamie was tender hearted. He loved pretty things. I always hoped one day he would win the battle over his demons. Our boys lost their lives way too early.
Love to you too

“ He was a sweet, caring, and generous person. We loved it when he came to visit us at here at the Visalia PD. He would bring us little gifts to show us how much he cared and appreciated us. For someone who didn't have much it was sweet that he would go out of his way bring us little things like business cards with little notes on them, pens, and other sweet things and bring them to us rain or shine. He wanted us to know he was thinking about us. He will forever be missed.
