“ Jami was an amazing person. She always loved with her whole heart and was never afraid of her geek side. I will miss our long talks about Star Wars, The Walking Dead and Superheros. She took wonderful care of our fur baby Imo when she had no where else to go. She was a wonderful Auntie to my baby girl and even taught her to hold her bottle. We will miss you terribly and our thoughts and prayers are with your family. May your soul be at peace and you fly among the angels watching over us all. We love you.
Love,
Josh, Krystal, Aubrey and Umi Bartley

“ I have such good memories of Jami, mostly from middle school as we lost touch when we went to different high schools. My last year of AYSO soccer Jami's dad was our coach and we had so much fun that year. We were a wild bunch and her dad was the perfect coach for us. We didn't play by the rules and were constantly being obnoxious. Some how we made it to the play offs and I can remember at one point Heather Hoffman, our goalie, running up to play forward while Jami guarded the goal hands free. I think we were losing pretty badly. Another time, the Bovechop family took a few of us to Pine Flat and we rode around on their boat and jet skis. Jami was always so mild mannered and would just shake her head at my crazy antics, like when I almost sunk their jetski and showed up back to the boat being towed by a stranger. Although we haven't hung out in quite some time, I will remember Jami very fondly. We always had such a great time when we were together whether it be playing sports, pranking each other, or having a sleep over. Jami, you will be missed.

What a wonderful young woman. I am more than sad. She was one of my favorite patients.
