

Jason William Pearson Sr.

May 13, 1975 - April 2, 2014

Jason William Pearson Sr., our beloved son, husband, father and brother, was unexpectedly taken from his loving family on April 2, 2014 at the tender age of 38 to be in the arms of our heavenly father. Jason was brought into the world on May 13, 1975 by his parents Pam and Joe Pearson, and was raised in Visalia; CA. Jason was preceded in death by his grandparents Barney and Viola Pearson, Bill Willis, Bill Terry, and his uncle Daniel Pearson. Jason loved to hunt, but his favorite thing to do was fish. He spent most of his free time with a pole or a rifle in his hand, either sitting on a bank or tromping through the woods. He's now fishing with Peter and Jonah, competing for big fish. July 4, 2000, he was happily wed and was raising his precious babies, teaching them all there was to know about love and life. Jason's smile and laugh was very infectious and always spread throughout all who was near. He leaves behind his parents Joe and Pam Pearson, his wife Amelia Pearson, five beautiful children: Hope Renee, Jason William Jr., Sammie

Morgan Viola, Wyatt Caleb Enoch, Waylon Daniel Pearson and mother of Waylon, Melanie Tristao. He leaves his brother Joe Pearson and fiancé Darcy Bettencourt, his niece and nephew Destiny and Joe Joe Pearson, and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews to numerous to name: all of which, loved him Greatly.

“ Jason, you left this world way too early, while you made many marks on this earth in your short time you had many more to make. You definitely made you mark in my life, I think back to all wonderful memories I have growing up; camping at Kaweah and 10 Mile and who could forget that trip to Twin Lakes. You always teased me like an older brother would but you had my back like one too, and while you may not have known it I always told everyone you were my great protector whether you making sure no one messed with me or making sure I wasn't anywhere I wasn't supposed to be, I always knew you were just next door.
Now my heart breaks to know you're gone, my prayers are with your mom, dad, wife and children I can see the unbearable pain they are in and I pray for their hearts to be healed.
Till we meet again cousin.....

“ I have tried to put into words how hard this last week has been. My heart breaks watching his Mom and Dad, Wife, Children, Brother, Niece, Nephew and loved ones try to wrap their head around Jason's death. Their lives will never be the same. I loved Jason and everyone that is mourning him. May The Lord please wrap you in his arms and give you strength. You will be deeply missed my nephew.
