

Jerry Eugene White

April 26, 1944 - August 27, 2024

Jerry White, 80, passed away peacefully at his home in Visalia, California on August 27, 2024.

Jerry was born in Tennessee to John and Vivian White. The family moved to California in 1955, and Tulare County became Jerry's home for the next 69 years. It was here that he met his best friend Marcia Polloni. They married in 1968 and raised their two boys in Visalia.

Jerry proudly served his country in the United States Air Force during Vietnam. After his military service, Jerry worked for Safeway for over 13 years, then opened his own auto shop for a few years before going into the gun business. Jerry was a beloved business man in his community, where he owned and operated Easley's Gun Shop for over 34 years.

Jerry is survived by his wife, Marcia, their children; Ron and Danny White and Michelle (Harry) Brooks, grandchildren; Sarah (Dakota) Noble-Eggie, Jordan (Shelbie), Chloe and Jagar Brooks, great grandson Keaton Noble-Eggie, his sister Jill (Gilbert) Cortez, along with several nephews and nieces. Preceding him in death were his parents, John and Vivian.

Memorial services will be held 11:00 AM Tuesday, September 3rd, 2024 at Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel, 127 E. Caldwell Ave., Visalia.

Services have been entrusted to Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel. Memorial Tributes and condolences may be offered by logging onto www.salseranddillard.com.

“ Jerry told me I kept him in business at Easley's, I made so many stops. The reason I did so was because he was such a good guy. Whether I was buying or I was just BSing it was always good to stop by.
