

Jesus Eladia Cabrera

February 18, 1920 - February 27, 2023

Yaya was born in Huatajo Michoacan Mexico to her parents Jeronima Aguilar and Ventura Cabrera who anxiously awaited her arrival. While her parents had other children, she was their only daughter.

Those of us who knew Yaya knew her to be honest, humble, noble and of faith. Those who asked for her opinion or advice were given very clear truths. Yaya became a widow at the age of 32 years and managed to raise 6 children: Clemente, Francisco, Jose, Luisa, Elena and Belen.

She has left a legacy of bravery, strength, and hard work to her children and grandchildren. We are now in the company of those who miss her dearly. It is painful to know we will not get another hug or a kiss from my Yaya. We are forever thankful and eternally proud of the great example and triumph which defines her life. We love you Yaya, we miss you and you will always live in our memories. We are comforted by the fact you are now in company of God, the angles and our loved ones in heaven who have preceded us in this temporary world. Yaya your work here is complete, rest in peace. AMEN.
