

John Marquez

December 1, 1987 - March 25, 2025

Johnny Marquez, born December 1st 1987, gone but not forgotten March 25, 2025. If I could grab every word out of a dictionary to describe you then this message could go on forever.

There is a reason why you are loved by so many, not only because of your dope haircuts and fly dressing attire, but because you knew how to put a smile on everyone's faces. The love you showed to the whole family, blood or not, is unmatched. You always looked out for the people you loved most and never put anyone behind you for your own well-being. You may not have had any schooling credentials but no degree could describe your intelligence. You had a deeper understanding of life and the wisdom you instilled to us, we will never forget. You were great at a lot of things, being a barber, drawing, making music, but not only that you were a Father, one that was there. You showed Johnathan and I the basic understandings of how to be a man and we will carry that on for the rest of our lives. You showed nicie what it's like to have a real man's love and affection so that she knows to never settle for less. If there is one last thing I wish I could say to you, it would be thank you. Thank you for all the hard lectures you put me through even knowing I didn't want to listen, thank you for believing in us that we could be and do whatever we want in this world, thank you for being the best dad your children could ever ask for, WE LOVE YOU.
