“ I am saddened to hear the news of John's passing. I was praying for a miracle that God would give him more time with his beautiful family. I knew John and his wife because I was honored to be their son, Ezra's school teacher. I will remember John's contagious giggle when I would talk to him each day after school. He always had a smile on his face and was so happy to see his little boy. I pray God brings comfort to Ezra and his family. I am keeping you all close to my heart.
