“ I was so saddened to read this tragic story, I am truly sorry for your loss. Please take comfort in the scripture at 2 Thessalonians 2:16,17. May the promises found in the scriptures give you the hope of being reunited with Jose under perfect circumstances. I know you are grieving and that nothing I say can take away your pain, but please allow God's word to comfort you and give you the strength to endure this painful time.

“ I did not know Jose well,mainly just to see him around town. But my granddaughter worked with him at Lowe's and said he was a kind man who love his family. My condolences to the family and friends of this fine man. May God ease your pain and see you through this time. God Bless.
