

Jose Rosario Salazar-Haro

October 17, 1960 - June 15, 2017

Jose Rosario Salazar, loving husband, father, and grandfather, passed away in Kaweah Delta Hospital on June 15, 2017 at 1:30am.

Jose was born in Mexico City, Mexico on October 17, 1960 to father Margarito Salazar and mother Rafaela Haro. After immigrating to the United States in 1970, Jose attended Woodlake High School and graduated ahead of his class in 1976, followed by some college at College of Sequoias in Visalia. He married Mercedes Juarez in 1991 in Huehuetenango, Guatemala.

While Jose battled kidney failure for much of his life, he was known by neighbors, family, and friends for his joy for singing Spanish-language songs, which were often heard coming from both his home and his locksmith shop. His joy for singing only ever came second to his love for his wife, Mercedes Salazar, son, Jose Daniel Salazar, daughter, Kaylee Salazar, and granddaughter, Aubrey Galindo, all of whom carry on the memory of Jose through their similar work ethic, kindness, and humor.

The image of Jose walking to the nearby Shell gas station for a Big Gulp, his guilty pleasure, is engraved in the minds of neighbors, family members, and friends who had the privilege of knowing him. There will not be a day he is not missed, as his understanding, loving heart has impacted those who surrounded him and, more importantly, will not be forgotten.

There will be a public viewing at Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel on Tuesday, June 20, 2017 from 4:00pm to 7:00pm. A funeral service will begin at 10am on Wednesday, June 21, 2017 at Salser and Dillard Funeral Chapel, followed by a burial service at Visalia District Cemetery.
