

Josephine Fay De La Torres

November 7, 1953 - May 5, 2024

Josephine Fay De La Torres "Josie" age 70 of Woodlake California, passed away suddenly and unexpectedly May 5th, 2024.

Josie is preceded in death by her parents Alley and Betty Stacy, and her husband Juan A. Torres, a brother Gary Stacy, sister Becky Stacy and sister Betty Simmerman.

She leaves behind sisters Beverly White Hooper, Judy Olea, Icapline Cleaver, and Agnes Reed, many in-laws, nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews. Let us not forget Josies daughter, Veronica A. Zamudio and Josies son, Juan Jose DeLaTorres and his wife Amy, five grandchildren Sarah Hernandez, Christina Zamudio, Robert Zamudio, Roman DeLaTorres, Jordan DeLaTorres and one great granddaughter Alina Marie Henandez all of Woodlake California.

Josie took pride in her work life, her cleaning business of 40 plus years, always looking her best, taking care of her family life, having a clean home, cooking for many, and making sure her family had everything they needed and more. She was proud of her children for the lives they built for themselves. The family she created was her biggest accomplishment of all. She enjoyed traveling, especially to the coast, and of course Las Vegas... we all know why. She enjoyed hosting holidays at home with family and friends.

She loved all her grand/great grandchildren "her babies."

We find peace and comfort in knowing she is now reunited with her husband, and family that went before her. She will be truly missed by many loved one's family and friends.

Rest in peace beautiful lady. Your work on earth is done.

“ Josie is my mother in law, although she could be difficult at times, she had so much love to give to her family. Her daughter and son and all of her grand babies were her everything. She always made sure they all had everything they needed. I can't believe you are gone Jo, I feel like this is all just a bad dream. I wish you were here in the flesh beautiful, but I'll take you visiting spiritually! Please watch over the kids now and forever as their own personal guardian angel. We love you and miss you like crazy. -Amy
