“ Sincere condolences from the Borba Family. Joyce was our neighbor and was so kind. It didn't matter what I was selling for band fundraisers, she happily made a purchase every time, with a smile. Thoughts and prayers to all of you.

“ I remember Joyce teaching us some Spanish at St. Aloysius School almost six decades ago. She played bridge with my mom and always had great humor. If I ran into her at Church or uptown she was so friendly. Blessings to her family.
