

Juan Jose Delgadillo

January 15, 1960 - January 20, 2020

On Monday January 20, 2020, Juan Jose Delgadillo passed away at the age of 60 surrounded by his loving brothers, sisters and daughter. He will be dearly missed by his family. Juan, affectionately known as Jaun Jo and Waffle, was best known for his wonderful sense of humor, gentle soul, and commitment to his family.

Born in San Juan De Los Lagos, Jalisco to Benjamin and Maria Carmen Delgadillo, Juan was a bright and fun-loving person who brought laughter to all who knew him. After receiving his Associate's Degree in Electronics, he spent 36 years in the field of communications where he garnered a reputation for his strong work ethic and positive attitude, being known for quickly completing his work, so he could help others finish theirs. In fact, it was said that if the company was behind, they could be certain Juan was not working that day.

Juan is survived by two daughters and was totally dedicated to his children. He will be remembered for his playfulness, his cheerful nature, for being the life of the party, and for eating more than seemed physically possible. Legend has it he could eat 15 enchiladas in one sitting.

A beloved father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend to all, Juan's memory will be cherished and kept alive by his daughters, five grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.
