“ JJ, Chris, and Ashley our condolences to you and your families.

So many memories of the Altarmiran family while you lived in Hanford. Your Dad and I thought we were going to be cattle ranchers, but when the cow we bought died, we decided to be pig farmer. Julian was Stubborn, loud and a great friend.

May you rest in peace,

Gary and Dolores Serrato

Thank you Gary and Dolores. I agree my father was stubborn and loud. I miss him dearly. There's not a day that goes by that i don't think of him. I miss his hugs and good mornings the most .

I met Julian on December 8, 1974. That was the day we started working for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. We were hired as toll clerks; Jules in Fresno and me in Modesto. We became very close friends over the next few years. When I was transferred to Fresno, he let me stay with him and Connie till I could find a place of my own. I met JJ at about 1 year old and later met Christopher soon after he was born. I have always loved Julian like the older brother I never had.
