It is with great sadness that our family of Julian A. Montoya announces his passing after ongoing health conditions and most of what took him was Cancer, on Friday, March 25, 2016, at the age of 69 years old.

God called for our father Julian A. Montoya on the day of Good Friday. Julian was born in Artesia, New Mexico on December 16, 1946 to his parents Manuel Montoya and Manuela Vicky Ramos. Julian worked for Kawneer for 25 years as a cabinet maker. Julian loved motorcycles he was part of a Mongols Motorcycles Club for almost 30 years. "Ride or Die" if he hadn't been so sick he would of rode until he died. He loved his motorcycles, he would chain them down or parked them in the house or even on your lawn. He loved music (especially) oldies, he also loved his family dearly, he was always involved in family gatherings as long as his bike sat in the middle of the party. He left behind individual memories in each person life.

He is survived by his children Angel, Andrea, Fonzie, Virginia, Reyna of Visalia, Ca. and Rosie from Bakersfield, Ca. His siblings Susie Carrasco of Clovis, Ca., Johnny Carrasco, Mary Serrato, Art Ramos, Gilbert and Robert Gonzales all of Visalia, Ca. He is in heaven now with the loved ones that will never be forgotten Julian
