

Julie Cardoza

August 17, 1956 - May 27, 2016

Julie Lynn Cardoza, wife, mother, sister, and friend returned to her Savior's loving arms on Friday, May 27, 2016, her mother's birthday. She lived a life dedicated to the work of her Lord Jesus Christ, making sure to turn the attention of all those she came in contact with to His presence. Julie was born in Fremont, Ohio on August 17, 1956, her father's birthday. She was preceded in death by her cherished husband of 37 years Rick Cardoza, her parents, the late Woodrow and Violet Shrouf of Tulare and two brothers, Delano Shrouf and Doug Shrouf. Julie leaves behind her two sons, Travis (Julia) Cardoza and Chris (Passion) Cardoza, her daughter, Taylor Osburn, and three adored grandchildren, Alexis, Hunter and Christian. Julie also leaves her beloved siblings, Denville Shrouf of Lake Stevens, WA, Delco Shrouf of Long Beach, CA, Carolynn Lutts of Marysville, WA, Dale Shrouf of Redding, CA, Roxanne Iacono of Lancaster, CA and Duane Shrouf of Tulare, CA. After raising her three children, Julie worked as an elementary school secretary for Immanuel Elementary School and Liberty Elementary School from which she formed many treasured friendships. Above any work or hobbies she enjoyed, Julie would have us remember one thing: Know Jesus. Live, walk, trust and rest in Him. Her family cherishes the memories of her faithful love for all of them, which itself was rooted in Jesus' faithful love for her. A memorial service will be held this Friday at 9:00 a.m. at Grace Community Church in Visalia. Arrangements are by Salser and Dillard Funeral Chapel. “ I am so sorry (and shocked) to hear of Julie's passing. I just heard today (Saturday) that the service was yesterday. Wish I could have been there to share my sympathy. To Travis, Chris, and Taylor: so sorry that you have lost both of your parents so early, and their grandchildren will only have the memories and legacies that you will continue to carry forward. Julie was a strong Christian woman/ mother, and you guys were all a pleasure to have as next-door neighbors for so many years.
