

Karen Alyce Gregory

April 1, 1966 - September 8, 2016

Karen Alyce Ogden Gregory passed away early Thursday morning September 8, 2016 with her family by her side. She was born April 1, 1966 in Bakersfield, Ca.

Alyce is survived by her husband, Jerry, daughters, Kayla, Rachelle (Chris), Jenna, and Natasha, granddaughter, Brooklyn, grandson, Cole. She is also survived by her parents Noah and Kay Ogden, her brothers Tre (Michelle), Jared (Kim), and Chad (Kim). Alyce will also be remembered by numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

Alyce married Jerry, the love of her life, on June 29, 1991 and had a wonderful life together for 25 years. They lived their whole married life together in Visalia, Ca where they raised their four daughters. Alyce loved spending time with her family, just relaxing. She also loved to watch football, baseball, and Nascar with her family, she could often be found on the edge of her seat, watching the game. She will be remembered for the great advice given to many, the loving way she had with everyone, and just the quiet peace she always had.

The family will hold a private graveside service. A Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, September 16, 2016 at 11:00 am at Parkside Chapel, 3200 E. Walnut Ave, Visalia, Ca 93292..

For those who desire to make donations to the family, please send them to Parkside Chapel, 3200 E. Walnut Ave, Visalia, Ca 93292, and address them to the Gregory Family. Condolences can be made to www.salseranddillard.co
