“ Keith. It's grandma again. Baby I'm trying to be strong but I'm not doing good. I miss your voice every morning. When u went to work you would say I'm going to work you have a great day, then I'd say you have a great day too. I'd say I love you then you would say , I love you to grandma. I cry for you everyday. I will never get over loosing you. God had something special for you, I just don't know what I am to do without you. Maybe God has something for me to. Your in my heart, soul, and my mind. If possible stay close to me until we meet up again. I know we will be together some day as soon as I have completed my journey on earth. See you then my sweet baby. I'm so proud of all you accomplished on earth. Now you show the heavens what you can do now!!! Love you forever keith

“ Hey Keith it's Sarah...I miss you so much man and I'm so sad to know you are no longer here. I'm so sorry we didn't talk very often. I hate myself for not being close like we once were. Remember when I saw you last time and you wanted me to take pictures of you with your eyes closed so you could see what you looked like sleeping? You are just so silly. Gosh I miss you so much and I love you unconditionally. Watch over the family now. Keep Pat safe and John too. And tommy he loves you so much and he was so proud of you. We all are. Keep your momma safe too. We all love you man!

“ Keith it's grandma. You were and are the light of my life. I'm like a wounded bird I can not fly any more. God had you in the beginning and he sent you to me. I'm so proud of you, you had more than any boy or man on this earth to over come. God let me have you for a short time on earth. Now he has called you back home with him. I will never be the same, but I thank him for the time he allowed me to have you. I always told you I will always be here for you and even now at the end of your journey on earth I am here. We will meet again when it's my time to go home to God. See you then my sweet baby. Love grandma
